

Components

advertisement

This is an advertisement component on the social network.

circle

This is the circle component on the social network. Circles are levels of trust for a group of user friends. The inner circles are more trusted than those on the outer circle. This component handles the front end rendering of the circle component.

comment

This is the comment component on the social network. Comments are single replies to user's posts. This component handles the rendering of such comments.

commentGroup

The commentGroup component is a container that holds multiple commentLists to be displayed on a user's post. This component handles the rendering of displaying the lists of comments as one would expect on a Comment chain on a post.

commentList

The commentList component is a container that represents a chain of comments for a particular post.

editProfile

The editProfile components allows users to edit their own profile on the social network.

findPeople

The findPeople component allows users to find other users who are also using this social network.

followers

The followers component act as a one-way binding for "friends" that want to keep up with you. Their circle setting may affect what you see.

following

The following component act as a one-way binding for "friends" that you want to keep up with. Your circle setting will affect what they see.

homeHeader

This component is simply the header to be displayed on your social network.

imageGallery

This component allows image galleries to be displayed on your social network.

img

This component renders posted images on the social network.

imgCover

This component renders the cover on one's profile on the social network.

masterLoading

This component is the animation when the social network is loading up.

notify

This component checks to see if the user has checked for a particular notification or not, and will render as so.

notifyItem

This component displays the actuals notifications on the social network.

post

This component displays a user's posts on the social network.

postWrite

This component writes the posts to the social network.

profileHeader

This component displays the header on one's profile.

sendFeedback

This component allows users to send feedback to the developers.

shareDialog

This component allows users to share posts on the social network.

sidebar

This component is a container for the sidebar on the social network

sidebarContent

This component contains the sidebar's content.

sidebarMain

This component contains the main item's on the sidebar.

userAvatar

This component helps display the user's avatar on the social network.

yourCircles

This component helps users understand their circle of friends on the social network.